

Welcome to Mac's List

Make the Hiring Process More Human

Mac's List is a career hub for professionals in the Pacific Northwest. More than a typical job board, we provide a platform for candidates and employers to connect. We offer career education and high-quality local job listings, attracting passionate candidates who are ready to get to work with top local employers. Fed by our deep roots in Portland's creative and social good sectors, Mac's List is here to serve the hiring needs of regional organizations of all sizes.

THE LOCAL

Pacific Northwest focus.

Invest in a platform that delivers talented candidates who are local and ready to work. Save on relocation costs: hire local!

Quality talent trusts our product. We invest in our candidate community so local job seekers trust us more than big-name job boards.

Committed service to employer partners.

We're here to help you hire with consultative services and personal account management.

“In these challenging times for hiring professionals, Mac's List is proving to be most helpful in attracting potential candidates.”
